

5,000 lively native trout are ready for a new home!

CUTTHROAT TROUT STOCKING EVENT

Join us April 25, 2025, to pack Rio Grande Cutthroat Trout fingerlings into the Rio Grande Gorge & Eagle Rock Lake

RIO GRANDE GORGE — 10:00 a.m.

Wild Rivers Visitor Center,
Rio Grande del Norte National Monument.

WHAT TO BRING

- Good hiking boots, cold weather clothes, sunscreen, hat, drinking water and lunch.
- Good day pack or frame pack. We'll provide bags, water and fish.
- Your fishing gear and fishing license if you plan to stay and fish.

EAGLE ROCK LAKE — 11:00 a.m.

Eagle Rock Lake,
Carson National Forest.

WHAT TO BRING

- Sunscreen, hat, drinking water and lunch.
- We'll provide cups, water and fish.
- Your fishing gear and fishing license if you plan to stay and fish.

Let us know you're coming
(and at which location you want to participate)
by filling out the online questionnaire:

<https://nmdeptgameandfish.snapsurvey.net/s/vdap43>

This event would not be possible without the support of our partners.

Questions? Contact John Smith, NMDGF Coldwater Fisheries Biologist
john.smith@dgf.nm.gov | 505-469-9718